

Lodging at the Morris Conference Center
State University of New York
College at Oneonta

The Morris Conference Center, a charming building built in 1949, is operated by the college and offers meeting space, catered dining services, and lodging.

Lodging Rooms are located in the Bacon and Denison wings (3 levels) with indoor access to Morris, but they are not accessible to physically challenged visitors. The rooms are clean and spacious - offering double windows, twin-size beds, pillows, linens, towels, washcloths, blankets, bedspreads, dressers, lamps, clock, area carpet, lounge chair, and two closets with hangers.

- Rooms are not air-conditioned
- It is advisable that guests bring box style or oscillating fans (not window fans)
- No elevators in the lodging wings
- Building is smoke free
- Guests may bring ice coolers and provide their own ice
- There are several common area TV lounges
- Wireless internet service is available, but requires a registration process and a $10 fee. The college cannot guarantee that everyone's computer will pass the registration process.

Each corridor of 8 or 10 rooms is served by one large single-sex bath. Bathrooms offer two walk-in stall showers with curtains, a tub and shower with locking door, three toilet stalls and four sinks. Liquid soap dispensers are located in each shower but guest are advised to bring their own soap and shampoo products. Individual disposable bath mats are available in each room for use outside the showers. Slippers and robes are advised.

Single - $50/night

Double $32.50 per person/night
